Destination information

Swiss WorldCargo starts operating weekly cargo-only flights from Zurich (ZRH) to Buenos Aires (EZE) starting 28 August. Buenos Aires is not just famous for its culture, design and architecture, but for its activities in trade and commerce as well. The autonomous city counts to one of six major regions of Argentina. The country’s major import and export business includes Soybean Meal and Oil, Corn, Wheat, Cars and Vehicle Parts. Low foreign trade and customs regulations allow Buenos Aires to shine as an interesting business hub for international cargo.
