SWISS Charter Solutions

Chapman Freeborn

Let's face it: some cargo is just more difficult to transport. This is where our partner for charter solutions, Chapman Freeborn, comes in. Chapman Freeborn has the experience and the expertise to provide you with whatever is needed to make each consignment a success. If your cargo exceeds the scope of scheduled air services or is difficult to process due to its size and weight, its place of origin or its intended destination, Chapman Freeborn will provide a solution for you and ensure that your product is shipped successfully.

Tailor-made solutions

The right aircraft for each task, all the way from a helicopter to the Antonov An-225: this is what Chapman Freeborn will provide for you. Every shipment will be treated as its own separate project, and handled based on decades of airfreight experience and expertise. There are no off-the-peg products here: Chapman Freeborn will offer you the tailor-made solution that makes the most business sense. A scheduled service will be used where possible, or a charter will be arranged if required. You will benefit from the lowest-cost solution. This gives you maximum flexibility and optimum profitability.

Your benefits

- Individual schedules
- Free choice of airport of origin and destination
- Virtually no weight or size restrictions
